Isak S Holt

Asheville, NC

Hello Isak:

Please be advised that the Board of Certification, Inc. (BOC) Professional Practice and Discipline Committee (Committee) has rendered the following decision with respect to the charge that you violated Codes 2.2 and 3.8 of the Code of Professional Responsibility (COPR) section of the BOC Standards of Professional Practice.

In a Charge letter dated July 31, 2025, the BOC informed you that the Committee had determined that good cause existed to believe that you have violated Codes 2.2 and 3.8 of the COPR section of the BOC Standards of Professional Practice based on the fact that your 2022-2023 audit was to be completed by January 6, 2025. Per USPS records, the Charge Letter was delivered on August 12, 2025 to the address listed on your BOC profile and signed for by another individual acknowledging its receipt of delivery. To date, you still have not yet complied with the audit.

Factual Findings

1. On January 1, 2024, you submitted your 2022-2023 CEUs and attested to the following relevant statements:
 - The information contained in this report is a true and accurate statement of my continuing education activities, falsification of this report may result in the suspension of my BOC certification.
 - I am submitting the required minimum number of CEUs for the current reporting period including at least the minimum number of CEUs in Category A on this form.
 - I am in possession of and prepared to present all original documentation confirming participation in reported activities. I am aware I must keep these records for at least two years after the reporting period has ended.
 - I am aware that I will be subject to an audit if I submit this form after the 12/31/2023 deadline.
 - I am aware my certification will expire, and late fees will be assessed starting 1/1/2024 if this form is not completed and submitted by 12/31/2023.
 - I am aware that my name, location, certification status and certification number will be available online through the BOC certification verification system to potential employers, state licensing officials and others.

Conclusions

Based on the lack of response to BOC notifications, the Committee determined that the facts above are valid and that such actions violate Codes 2.2 and 3.8 of the COPR section of the BOC Standards of Professional Practice:

Code 2.2: The BOC certified athletic trainer complies with the most current BOC recertification policies and requirements.

Code 3.8: The BOC certified athletic trainer ensures that any information provided to the BOC in connection with exam eligibility, certification recertification or reinstatement including but not limited to, exam applications, reinstatement applications or continuing education forms, is accurate and truthful.

As a result, the Committee has issued the following sanctions regarding your certification:

Your certification status is considered Suspended. Suspension of a BOC certification is considered public information and may be published or otherwise disclosed by the BOC. Further, while your certification is Suspended, you are not authorized to do the following:

1. Represent yourself to the public as a practicing Certified Athletic Trainer, Board-Certified Specialist or use the certification marks "ATC" or "BCS-O" following your name; or
2. Serve as an item writer for any BOC certification exam; or
3. Serve as a supervisor or preceptor of students who are satisfying the athletic training requirements for certification eligibility.

You may petition for reinstatement in accordance with Section 13 of the BOC Discipline Procedures. Such petition may be filed upon your ability to provide proof of compliance with the 2022-2023 CE audit or you are prepared to take the BOC Certification Exam for reinstatement. Such petitions may be subject to a background check and panel review. Contact the BOC office for reinstatement fees and procedures.

Isak, this matter will remain a part of your BOC certification file and may be used for the purpose of determining sanctions in any future matters that come before the BOC Professional Practice and Discipline Committee or other Disciplinary Panels. You have the right to appeal a decision made by the Committee. An appeal must be received by the BOC within thirty (30) days of receipt of this decision. The appeal must be written and addressed to the BOC Chief Executive Officer. For details regarding the appeal process, please see the enclosed procedures.

Sincerely,

Signature
